

CHRIST WASN'T A GROUCH, SAYS PASTOR

Rev. H. G. Stoetzer Delivers Able Address to Boys of Hi-Y Club.

"Jesus Christ wasn't a grouch or of a sad and gloomy disposition," declared Rev. H. G. Stoetzer, D. D., pastor of First Presbyterian church, last evening in addressing the Hi-Y club at the Y. M. C. A. Five different times in the Bible Christ is credited with saying, "Be of good cheer." The purpose of the club, he interpreted it is to disseminate the Christian character, which could be understood as being like Christ. Dr. Stoetzer then detailed from the words of the Savior what attitude he possessed.

The three-fold life he said is apparent in the Y. M. C. A. insignia, which really was described in the biblical reference Christ, "increased in wisdom and stature and in favor with God and man." The peoples of the Bible times, especially in the Holy Land, lived outdoors, which had much to do with their splendid physical build. Christ was a healthy man in body and not a weak, sickly being as some persons believe. He was a pedestrian—a man that walked from his home to Jerusalem—a distance of 66 miles. At this juncture Rev. Stoetzer told of the marked vitality that many men have acquired and attribute it to that form of exercise. A man of ninety years says that a transcontinental walk is responsible for his excellent health in his advanced years. The Y. M. C. A. is a great developer of the physical man.

Christ developed mentally and the Y. M. C. A. assists a man to do this also. In Japan a star-gazing night is observed on which the people go out into the open and "look up and learn something of the vast world above." Christ developed his mind. Study of biographies of good strong characters in the Bible and in history the speaker declared, was helpful. Lives of such men as Joseph, Caleb, David and Goliath, Socrates, Plato and Aristotle are glowing examples in addition to the life of the Savior himself.

Touching on the moral side of the Y. M. C. A. Dr. Stoetzer made the point that morals are always an asset, showing how great athletes have been clean men morally, referring in particular to Rogers, of W. V. U. At the meeting, which was presided over by Sam Rock, a committee composed of William Lehman, Walter Glover and T. Wilbur Hennen, Jr., was appointed to select a Hi-Y pin. This committee will meet at 7:30 o'clock on Friday evening.

L. L. Beers, boys' work secretary, made a brief address during the evening. Initiation will be observed at next Tuesday night's meeting.

The members in attendance were as follows: Pierre F. Hill, Robert C. Morris, Geo. L. Cole, Fred Boyers, Van Maur Altman, Robert O. Harden, Thomas Wise, L. Wallman, Brooks Blinn, Walter Glover, Frank Conley, Frank G. Corly, David Harrison, Norman Mumford, Clifton Hall, Sutton Sharp, secretary, Wilbur Hennen, William Lehman, Ward Sturm, Cully C. ## EAKLE NO LONGER DEPUTY SHERIFF

Expert With the Dogs Goes Back to His Watson Building Job.

Buck Eakle, former deputy sheriff, is now employee as night watchman at the Watson building, where his Brobdignagian proportions ought to have a deterring effect on malefactors having predatory designs on the property of tenants. He entered on his new duties last night.

Buck was a special deputy sheriff during the months of November and December and was considered an expert in handling the sheriffs bloodhounds where his enormous strength served him in good stead whenever he was called upon to take out the dogs for the sheriff which happened quite frequently. Buck's alertness of vision was also a wonderful help to the dogs especially when there was snow on the ground as it is well known that bloodhounds are guided solely by their sense of smell and not by sight.

Handling bloodhounds now is quite a different matter from the good old days when Eliza crossed the ice on the Ohio river and escaped from a pack of hounds in full cry as anyone knows who has ever seen Uncle Tom's cabin. Nowadays, the blood hounds are held in leash, thus preventing them from running in a lot of different directions instead of sticking to the business of following the plain trail.

Friends of Mr. Eakle think that considering his knowledge of the subject, he ought to embark in the bloodhound business, which, it is said, netted Sheriff Glover four thousand dollars last year, but Buck seemed to prefer going back to his old job in the Watson Building.
